

65TH COMP

ANNUAL SCIENTIFIC MEETING

Partnership Opportunities

SEPTEMBER 24-27, 2019

Exploring BIG Data, Harvesting BIG Impacts

Delta Grand Okanagan Resort, Kelowna, BC

PARTNERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Why Partner with COMP?

The COMP Annual Scientific Meeting (ASM) is a unique opportunity to foster collaborative relationships and to share and embrace new knowledge. The theme for the 2019 meeting is: Exploring BIG Data, Harvesting BIG Impacts and it will be taking place in Kelowna, BC from September 24th to the 27th at the Delta Grand Okanagan Resort.

What is the ASM?

The 65th Annual Scientific Meeting is the premier meeting of the Canadian medical physics community. Participants, sponsors and leaders in the field spend three days engaging in leading edge continuing education and learning about the latest developments in scientific research.

Who attends the ASM?

The COMP ASM will be attended by medical physics professionals from Canada and around the world. The ASM fosters interdisciplinary collaboration and learning.

Delegates include:

- Professional physicists, scientists and academics representing a broad spectrum of clinical, research and academic interests
- Leaders and decision-makers in the medical physics community
- Young professionals in the field of medical physics
- Graduate students in medical physics programs
- Medical physics post-doctoral fellows
- COMP members who come from universities, hospitals, cancer centres and government research facilities

Why be visible at the ASM?

The financial support of our partners will help us to design and deliver innovative programming for our delegates. As a partner, you will be provided with a unique opportunity to:

- Connect with leaders and decision-makers in the medical physics community
- Develop relationships and position your brand and products with key decision-makers
- Increase your company's visibility and image
- Learn about and engage in dialogue on emerging issues in the medical physics community in Canada and beyond

PARTNERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

As a partner, you will have access to networking opportunities during all three days of the program (social events, meals and exhibitor events):
